

East Texas Communities Foundation Scholarships

Dana Durham, program officer for the East Texas Communities Foundation, has announced scholarships available for students in East Texas.

Students, please come to the downstairs counseling center to get a list of all the scholarships available to you. Some of the scholarships on the list are for students attending particular East Texas high schools; others are open to students in all East Texas high schools.

All applications are online applications and are now available at www.etcf.ofg.

Check to see if you are eligible for any of these scholarships.
